Meeting Overview

We're back on the Acton for the first time in a couple of years and the new Polytrack season can start with a bang via SUGOI LEGEND (Race 1) who fronts up looking for the longer trip. Tallingas Prince has been good in both starts to date and can be closer up in trip from the low draw but Sugoi Legend can pack too much punch. That the yard were willing to pitch up at Flemington over Cup week at this time last prep (and that he held up as well as he did there) speaks volumes. Race 4 is one of the more interesting races on the card. Chances run deep. The Polytrack might be a big plus for BROMEO who has seen his ratings dip on heavy tracks. Heart Of Vancouver can get into a good spot and in unbeaten fresh. Nice upside which Magic Talent doesn't have though she did shape well at Goulburn. Evanora is 2/3 on the Acton and may be suited on the new surface. Surface can be a plus for TAVOLO who is trained on it. Debut was good - that rating beats these - and she was fine last time in a race that has worked out well. Same home stable produce the best chance in the Federal. I'M NOT LEAVING (Race 7) didn't get home over the longer trip last time but shaped well for a long way. Has produced ratings that beat these this prep and the drop in trip on the home track/surface look ticks. Softer draw might work well for Accrue who was as good as ever last time though the track is expected to give them all their chance. Almost Persuaded and Frisson have acted well on synthetics in the past and Keep It Down looks a decent blow out. Ran well in a strong form race at Wagga before posting good closing splits last time
