Meeting Overview

Back on the Acton for Canberra's season finale. Happy to dodge race one and keep a keen eye on BRINGBACKTHEBEARS in Race 2. Had tempo to suit FU but ran slick figures when getting out in trip in his first preparation. Suspect he'll be much closer in the run this time around, keeping THE HIGH PRIESTESS in his sights. She's been solid without smashing the door down in VIC and looks beatable coming up here. Keen to be with LIGHT PRESS in the third. Good win at this T&D two back and backed up that rating last time out with prior form suggesting she may have some improvement to come. PRETTY VEGAS comes up the early fave but was only fair at Goulburn last time out and is yet to show something like her big debut win. To race 5 where MISSILE LEADER has come up awfully short early on. He's got plenty of issues and if he even gets into the barriers is the first of those. SHERMAN may be some value in that race. Disappointed LS but figures here two back suggest he can be in the finish. Horse Of The Year up for grabs in the Federal and EMMA'S GIFT looks to have some edge early doors. Big win fresh and sectionals say she was pulling away from them late. Up around her peak there and can improve again with the run under her belt. LETHAL LADY pops up the early fave but has regressed her rating in every 2UP effort, whereas she'll need to go the opposite way in this. In the last, DEPLOY AND DESTROY has ratings good enough to win this he'll just need to produce them fresh. HEAVENLY LIGHT showed good improvement on this track LS and out in trip can bring his figures from last preparation into play. RANGARUSH has superior ratings, but over further and looks unlikely to bring those here.
